The Skating Club of Wilmington

Dear SCW Family, Friends, and Neighbors,

The Skating Club of Wilmington is pleased to present “Once Up-on a Game”, our 2017 Spring Ice Show. With warmer weather fast approaching, this event gives all of our skaters, from beginners to Olympic hopefuls, one last chance to show off the skills they have acquired over the cold winter months.

Back as artistic director is our own Olympian, Irina Romanova, who gave us the colorful and exciting productions of “US” (2013), “Love” (2014), and “Art2Skate” (2016). Also returning to our ice is the incomparable Johnny Weir, who promises another spectacular performance.

The show that you are about to see is the result of hard work by the entire SCW Family, including our skaters, coaches, parents, members, and rink staff. Skaters and coaches have spent weeks choreographing and perfecting the dazzling moves that you will soon witness. Talented volunteers have been busy designing, sewing, and gluing costumes. Our tireless management team, Peter Bilous and Dot Gualtieri, have put in hours of hard work transforming our rink to the dramatic stage that you now see.

Daring Club members are manning the lights, cueing the music, and organizing the chaos that is going on backstage. Thank you to all for making this show possible.

So now, bundle up, sit back, and enjoy the games!

Our thanks to the many more volunteers from locker room parents to ushers, monitors, costume seamstresses, etc. whom we couldn't name here due to the sheer number of names and lack of space in this program. To all, a big thank you!

By Irina Romanova Director

Hi!

My name is Irina Romanova. I am a National, World and Olympic coach and choreographer, and artistic director of this year's show.

This is the eighth year I've been involved in creating and developing the concept of the entire production. I've been a part of the annual SCW shows for the past fifteen years.

Every year I try to learn and share something new about the subject of the show inspiration. This time it's dedicated to games.

The story of two boys sound asleep after an exhausting birthday celebration will take us on a journey through time. From a Medieval Playground all the way to Las Vegas. Our talented performers will show us how to play different games through the magic of movement and figure skating. The dance floor on the ice will be used for different non-skating routines.

Although it goes without saying how much I enjoy my work, I have to admit again that nothing could be achieved without colossal support from the SCW staff members, parents, coaches, skaters and my own family members. Johnny! A huge thanks to you for being part of it!! As we survive yet another year of sleepless nights and all the stress and shenanigans involved in the process of creating this show, please remember: Life is just a game! Press START to begin!!!

Johnny Weir

In a way, Johnny Weir needs no introduction. It may even be why you came to the show tonight. Now calling SCW home, Johnny is one of the superstars of figure skating and a pop culture icon. Fans all over the globe love his elegant yet edgy style both on and off the ice, and the delicious unpredictability of what he'll do, say or wear next.

Johnny captured the Men's Junior World title in 2001; brought home the gold three times at the US National Championships; skated into 5th and 6th Olympic spots; and bronze medaled at Worlds in 2008.

Some of you may not know that Johnny speaks fluent Russian and that he lends his voice and prominence to a range of philanthropic and charitable organizations with SCW being one of them. Johnny has volunteered his time this weekend to entertain and delight us so that we may be able to continue to offer our figure skating and hockey programs in Wilmington.

Johnny supports the LGBT community whenever he can and he has written a book, "Welcome to my World," available on Amazon.com. Johnny's live commentary for NBC Sports Network on the figure skating events at the Sochi Winter Olympics provided concise, insightful and witty analysis. Coupled with the on-air charisma he enjoyed with broadcast partner Olympic Champion, Tara Lipinski, as well as their shared love of fashion, made the duo an Internet sensation.

Julia Biechler & Damian Dodge Senior Ice Dance

Julia & Damian have been skating together since 2012 and they have medaled many times already. They won gold medals at the Eastern Sectional Championships in 2016 and 2017, and came in 7th at the 2017 U.S. National Championships. Julia also came in 4th at the 2016 Lombardia Trophy, a senior international figure skating competition held in Bergamo, Italy, that was part of the 2016–17 ISU Challenger Series.

Julia began her skating career at age 2 because her mother was a skating coach and president of the Hershey Figure Skating Club. She also competes in the Ladies Junior level as a singles skater, and she previously competed in Ice Dance with Alexander Petrov in 2010-2012. Julia is currently a student at Connections Academy and would one day like to develop communities and residential areas using “Green” technology and materials.

Damian graduated from William Tennents High School in Warminster, PA, in 2013 and he is currently studying at Drexel University in Philadelphia pursuing a degree in Health Services Administration. Damian began skating at age 3 in order to play hockey and previously skated with Cassandra Jeandell from 2007 to 2012.

Peter Liu, age 17, started to skate with “Learn to Skate” at age 5 near his home in Chalfont, PA. In June 2011, he started to train with Viktor Pfeifer and Priscilla Hill at SCW, and soon thereafter Viktor became his head coach.

Peter started to compete at the intermediate level in 2013. In his first year of qualifying competition, Peter won pewter medals in the 2014 South Atlantic Regionals, Eastern Sectionals, and Nationals!

In 2014-2015, Peter moved to Novice level but severe back pain cost him most of the summer without normal training. He resumed training in late August and ended up winning the Bronze medal in South Atlantics, and the Silver medal in Easterns, and placed 6th at the Nationals. Peter started well in 2015-2016 season, but a bad fall during practice cost him three months. He went through Regionals and Sectionals (where he placed 2nd and 3rd respectively), and qualified for Nationals in three consecutive seasons. He recovered from the injury just in time for Nationals, and won the Silver medal in Novice Men. After Nationals, Peter was assigned to compete in Triglav Trophy in Jesenice, Slovenia and won the Silver medal in Advanced Novice Men. Peter is now skating at the Junior level and he earned a Silver medal at the 2017 Eastern Sectionals and came in a strong 7th place at the 2017 U.S. National Championships.

Peter is an honor student finishing his sophomore year in Pennsylvania Leadership Charter School. Peter is also a student at the Center of Performing and Fine Arts, where he studies Music, Arts, and Modern Dance. Peter took private piano lessons for 6 years, and he has been taking private painting lessons since 2011.

Emmanuel Savary, a graduate of Glasgow High School and a competitive skater for U of Del, recently won the 2016 Triglav Trophy competition in Jesenice, Slovenia. He earned a score of 179.24 points, over 40 points more than his closest competitor. This helped win Team USA three medals in three events. His score on the short program was higher than some senior skaters who competed in the Winter Olympics! This was Savary's first international title since winning gold in the Novice Men's division at the Gardena Spring Trophy in 2011. He came in 3rd at the 2017 Eastern Sectionals, and he placed 13th in Championship Senior Men at the 2017 U.S. Figure Skating Championships.

Lexi Gwynn, our National Anthem singer, has sung at several of our ice shows including this year's. She is an experienced young actor and singer from Malvern, Pennsylvania. Her five-octave vocal range, authentic acting, and infectious energy have captured the attention of directors and audiences throughout the Philadelphia region.

Lexi has performed in many roles: Young Cosette in Media Theatre's production of Les Misérables; Little Alice in Alice in Wonderland at the Walnut Street Theatre; Annie in Magic Tree House at the Media Theatre. She has also performed in 2013 in the children's ensemble in Elf, the Musical, directed by Marc Robin. She previously played the role of Marta von Trapp in The Sound of Music at Forge Theatre, where she also performed in a 50th Anniversary Gala. Gwynn has appeared at the Walnut Theatre in High Society and in the TONY Nominated musical, A Christmas Story.
